FREEDMEN'S BUREAU PRESERVATION PROJECT

This National Archives microfilm publication is part of a multiyear project to microfilm the field office records of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands (Freedmen's Bureau). The project was made possible by the United States Congress through The Freedmen's Bureau Records Preservation Act of 2000 (Public Law 106-444). When completed, all of the field records for the States of Alabama, Arkansas, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, and for the District of Columbia will be available on microfilm. For microfilm availability and description, view both the microfilm catalog Black Studies: A Select Catalog of National Archives Microfilm Publications and the National Archives microfilm locator on our web site at www.archives.gov.

INTRODUCTION

On the 42 rolls of this microfilm publication, M1906, are reproduced the records of the Maryland and Delaware field offices of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, 1865-1872. These records consist of bound volumes and unbound records, containing materials that include letters and endorsements sent and received, orders and circulars, monthly reports, and other records relating to freedmen's complaints and claims. These records are part of the Records of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, Record Group (RG) 105.

HISTORY AND ORGANIZATION

The Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, also known as the Freedmen's Bureau, was established in the War Department by an act of Congress on March 3, 1865 (13 Stat. 507). The life of the Bureau was extended twice by acts of July 16, 1866 (14 Stat. 173), and July 6, 1868 (15 Stat. 83). The Bureau was responsible for the supervision and management of all matters relating to refugees and freedmen, and of lands abandoned or seized during the Civil War. In May 1865, President Andrew Johnson appointed Maj. Gen. Oliver Otis Howard as Commissioner of the Bureau, and Howard served in that position until June 30, 1872, when activities of the Bureau were terminated in accordance with an act of June 10, 1872 (17 Stat. 366). While a major part of the Bureau's early activities involved the supervision of abandoned and confiscated property, its mission was to provide relief and help freedmen become self-sufficient. Bureau officials issued rations and clothing, operated hospitals and refugee camps, and supervised labor contracts. In addition, the Bureau managed apprenticeship disputes and complaints, assisted benevolent societies in the establishment of schools, helped freedmen in legalizing marriages entered into during slavery, and provided transportation to refugees and freedmen who were attempting to reunite with their family or relocate to other parts of the country. The Bureau also helped black soldiers, sailors, and their heirs collect bounty claims, pensions, and back pay.

The act of March 3, 1865, authorized the appointment of Assistant Commissioners to aid the Commissioner in supervising the work of the Bureau in the former Confederate states, the border states, and the District of Columbia. While the work performed by Assistant Commissioners in each state was similar, the organizational structure of staff officers varied from state to state. At various times, the staff could consist of a superintendent of education, an assistant adjutant general, an assistant inspector general, a disbursing officer, a chief medical officer, a chief quartermaster, and a commissary of subsistence. Subordinate to these officers were the assistant superintendents, or subassistant commissioners as they later became known, who commanded the subdistricts.

The Assistant Commissioner corresponded extensively with both his superior in the Washington Bureau headquarters and his subordinate officers in the subdistricts.

NATIONAL ARCHIVES AND RECORDS ADMINISTRATION
MICROFILM PUBLICATIONS

Based upon reports submitted to him by the subassistant commissioners and other subordinate staff officers, he prepared reports that he sent to the Commissioner concerning Bureau activities in areas under his jurisdiction. The Assistant Commissioner also received letters from freedmen, local white citizens, state officials, and other non-Bureau personnel. These letters varied in nature from complaints to applications for jobs in the Bureau. Because the assistant adjutant general handled much of the mail for the Assistant Commissioner's office, it was often addressed to him instead of to the Assistant Commissioner.

In a circular issued by Commissioner Howard in July 1865, the Assistant Commissioners were instructed to designate one officer in each state to serve as "general Superintendents of Schools." These officials were to "take cognizance of all that is being done to educate refugees and freedmen, secure proper protection to schools and teachers, promote method and efficiency, correspond with the benevolent agencies which are supplying his field, and aid the Assistant Commissioner in making his required reports." In October 1865, a degree of centralized control was established over Bureau educational activities in the states when Rev. John W. Alvord was appointed Inspector of Finances and Schools. In January 1867, Alvord was divested of his financial responsibilities, and he was appointed General Superintendent of Education.

An act of Congress, approved July 25, 1868 (15 Stat. 193), ordered that the Commissioner of the Bureau "shall, on the first day of January next, cause the said bureau to be withdrawn from the several States within which said bureau has acted and its operation shall be discontinued." Consequently, in early 1869, with the exception of the superintendents of education and the claims agents, the Assistant Commissioners and their subordinate officers were withdrawn from the states.

For the next year and a half the Bureau continued to pursue its education work and to process claims. In the summer of 1870, the superintendents of education were withdrawn from the states, and the headquarters staff was greatly reduced. From that time until the Bureau was abolished by an act of Congress, effective June 30, 1872, the Bureau's functions related almost exclusively to the disposition of claims. The Bureau's records and remaining functions were then transferred to the Freedmen's Branch in the office of the Adjutant General. The records of this branch are among the Bureau's files.

THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU IN MARYLAND AND DELAWARE

ORGANIZATION

In June 1865, Comm. Oliver Otis Howard appointed Col. John Eaton as the Assistant Commissioner of the District of Columbia, which included Maryland, the District, the city of Alexandria, and the neighboring Virginia counties of Fairfax and Loudon. On September 27, 1865 (Special Order Number 77), Commissioner Howard appointed Lt. Col. William P. Wilson as acting Assistant Superintendent for Maryland. Wilson served until March 30, 1866, and was then replaced by Bvt. Maj. Gen. George J. Stannard, who became the first Assistant Commissioner for Maryland. Stannard's headquarters was at Baltimore. His command included all of the state, except the counties of Calvert, Charles, Montgomery, Prince Georges, and St. Marys, which were under the control of the Assistant Commissioner of the District of Columbia. In early summer 1866, six counties in Virginia and two in West Virginia, known as the Shenandoah Division, were added to the Maryland Command (transferred to the Virginia command in the following September). By July 1866, Bvt Maj. Gen. Francis Fessenden replaced Stannard, and served for 1 month before he was replaced by Bvt. Maj. Gen. Edgar M. Gregory. On January 16, 1867 (Special Order Number 7), Maryland's jurisdiction was expanded to include Delaware. Bvt. Brig. Gen. Horace M. Brooks replaced Gregory in January 1868, and by August 1868, Bureau affairs relating to Maryland and Delaware were reassigned to the Assistant Commissioner for the District of Columbia. A subassistant commissioner, Fred C. von Schirach, remained in Baltimore until December 1868. A claims agent remained in Baltimore until 1872.

ACTIVITIES

Unlike its operations in states of the Deep South where providing relief, supervising labor contracts, and the administration of abandoned property was of primary concern, the Bureau's activities in Maryland and Delaware and other areas under its jurisdiction centered largely on freedmen education, the administration of justice, and veterans' claims.

The Freedmen's Bureau's efforts to provide education for freedmen in Maryland was hampered by a system of illegal apprenticeship of school-age children. In direct conflict with the Civil Rights Act of 1866 (14 Stat. 27), black children were being bound to their former owners for indefinite periods of time with the help of Maryland government officials. An estimated 10,000 black children were bound out as apprentices between 1864 and 1867. The Bureau, however, through writs of habeas corpus and other court actions, fought vigorously to have these children released. By 1868, the intense efforts of the Bureau had largely ended the apprenticeship system in Maryland.¹

Although the illegal apprenticeship system hindered the Bureau's educational activities in Maryland, the agency still managed to provide assistance with the construction and repair of school buildings and protection of and transportation for teachers. To increase its visibility and to gauge the interest of freedmen in establishing schools, Maryland and District of Columbia Bureau officials traveled to various counties, holding meetings on the benefits of education and the agency's intention to provide aid for schools. In addition, the Bureau worked closely with private benevolent societies, such as the Baltimore Association, the American Missionary Association, and the Freedmen's Union Association, to sustain freedmen schools in spite of intense and often violent opposition from whites. From October 1867 to October 1868, the Bureau provided aid and assistance to some 80 schools in Maryland.²

Although the black population in Delaware and West Virginia was small, and Bureau operations in these states were limited, the agency still managed to provide noteworthy assistance for freedmen education. In Delaware the Bureau assisted in the construction of several freedmen schools. The agency also provided aid to various civic groups and benevolent societies, especially the Delaware Association for the Moral Improvement and Education of the Colored Race, which maintained some 23 schools in various parts of the state. West Virginia maintained a system of free education. However, whites controlled funds for schools and employment of teachers, and schools for blacks and whites remained separate, as required by law. Bureau officials, nonetheless, worked closely with the West Virginia superintendent of free schools in the establishment of schools for freedmen. As in Maryland, Bureau officials traveled throughout West Virginia counties, advising freedmen of their support and plans for building schools. Similar to other areas under its jurisdiction, the Bureau supplied funds for buildings, and teachers were generally paid from public funds, contributions from blacks, and aid from benevolent societies. By 1868, with cooperation mostly from freedmen themselves, the Bureau was able to establish 9 schools in West Virginia.³

Safeguarding rights and securing justice for freedmen was of paramount concern to the Freedmen's Bureau. Following the Civil War, several Southern states enacted a series of laws commonly known as "black codes," which restricted the rights and legal status of freedmen. Freedmen were often given harsh sentences for petty crimes and in some instances were unable to get their cases heard in state courts. In a circular issued by Commissioner Howard on May 30, 1865, Assistant Commissioners were authorized, in places where civil law had been interrupted and blacks' rights to justice were being denied, to adjudicate cases between blacks themselves and between blacks and whites. In the District of Columbia and Maryland, the civil process of law had not been interrupted, and unlike many areas of the South under the Bureau's jurisdiction, no freedmen's or provost courts were in operation. The Bureau did however, provide legal assistance to freedmen in civil and criminal cases in both the District of Columbia and Maryland. This was done especially in instances where freedmen lacked counsel and in cases where Bureau officials felt that freedmen were wrongly convicted or imprisoned. In 1868, the Assistant

Commissioner for the District reported that of the nearly 900 cases handled by his office, a large percentage involved incidents in Maryland.⁴

In accordance with a law passed by Congress on March 29, 1867 (15 Stat. 26), making the Freedmen's Bureau the sole agent for payment of claims of black veterans, Bureau disbursing officers assisted veterans and their heirs in the preparation and settlement of claims. To administer claims, the Bureau established a Claims Division. This office was abolished in 1868, and most of the activities of the Maryland Bureau relating to claims were then centered in Baltimore, MD, where two full-time disbursing officers were assigned to settle and pay veterans claims. At the Baltimore office, the Bureau handled claims for Maryland, Delaware, and other areas under its jurisdiction. In 1868 Bureau agents disbursed more than $10,000 for military claims.⁵ The Bureau maintained registers and files for claimants for payments of bounty, back pay, and pensions. These records often contain the name, rank, company, and regiment of the claimant; the dates the claim was received and filed; the address of the claimant; and remarks.

RECORDS DESCRIPTION

These records consist of volumes and unbound records. The volumes reproduced in this microfilm publication were originally arranged by type of record and thereunder by volume number. No numbers were assigned to series consisting of single volumes. Years later, all volumes were assigned numbers by the Adjutant General's Office (AGO) of the War Department after the records came into its custody. In this microfilm publication, AGO numbers are shown in parentheses to aid in identifying the volumes. The National Archives assigned the volume numbers that do not appear in parentheses. In some volumes, particularly in indexes and alphabetical headings of registers, there are blank numbered pages that have not been filmed.

The volumes consist of letters and endorsements sent and received, registers of letters received, unregistered letters received, general and special orders and circulars received, registers of claimants for bounties and pay arrearages, and registers of complaints of illegal apprenticeships. The unbound documents consist of letters and orders received, unregistered letters received and narrative reports received, special orders and circulars issued, general and special orders and circulars received, and other series.

Records in other National Archives record groups supplement those of the Assistant Commissioner. In Records of United States Army Continental Commands, 1821-1920, RG 393, are records of the military district that included Maryland and Delaware. Records relating to employment and welfare of freedmen and abandoned property before the establishment of the Bureau are among Records of Civil War Special Agencies of the Treasury Department, RG 366. The records of the Freedman's Savings and Trust Company, 1865-1874, in Records of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, RG 101, contain information relating to former slaves who maintained accounts with the bank branches at Baltimore, Maryland, and the District of Columbia.

that there was Receipts sent to Mr. West of Baltimore Hun-

here, and that he handed them over to a colored woman

If this be so, I have never seen them. I wish you had sent them to me as I am not able to go up there. If you have not sent them do please send them here.

to the care of the P. M. and I shall be sure to get them. And if you please when you send the money, be sure and send it direct ~~here~~ from Washington to me in care of the P. M. for those people up in Delaware expect to hold and keep the most of it. They say they intend paying themselves well for all the trouble ~~at~~ when the business could have been here, for here is where all the documents have been.

proven. Please send the attorney at Dover, Del. his commission and all the Balance send to me. I wish you would if you have sent the receipts in Del. write and order them to be sent ~~here~~ to me so that I can sign and have them executed before a Justice of the Peace, ^{of this place} so that I can obtain my money. I do not think but what, that colored woman was not any too good to have my name and marked forged. And I am altogether opposed to Mr. West's having anything to do with it. Please inform me immediately for if there is anything coming to me I very much need it. I am about ninety years old and nothing to live upon but what I work out and you may know that that is not much. Please grant my request and it will be a deed of charity.

Dear sir:-

I have this day signed ed receipts for my bounty which comes from The death of my son Irvin Hall, a soldier of the U.S. Army. Yours of Feb 13th Inst said that you will see that it does not go through Thos Delawarian's hands. It came to me today by a colored man, and he would not let the receipts be mailed at this office. After I signed them he told me that he intended to take out for his trouble, and the balance
he would send to me. Now I never employed this colored man he stole my papers after I had them executed he would take them

up in Delaware, and collect it for me.
I told him I wanted Mr. Chas Collins, The P.M. to collect.

Hon Edward C. Kinnor.

Dear sir, you will please send the money or check, as the old woman desires which I know you will do, for if as she said the colored man or those of his friends get hold of it she will never get it. Please send to me, I can give you any reference will oblige me as I told her I would

Dear Sir:

I am informed by my attorney at Washington - Mr. Chas. C. Licker - that my bounty claim on account of my deceased son John Wright late of U.S.C. Troops was allowed April 9th 1870 by Treasury Certificate No. 559,194 for $237.63 and sent to the Freedmen's Bureau Agent
nearest my residence.

As I have never received any notification from you, I write respectfully to ask if the above information is correct.

If so, will you be kind enough to forward a check for the amount, directed as follows.

Dear Sir,

Your favor of the

have made application for the amount due me, on account of my deceased son, John Wright, and that as soon as the money is recd. prompt notice will be sent me.

In order to facilitate the matter, I will state that John Wright was ^{I think} a member of the 7th Regt. U. S. Colored Troops, but I do not recollect his company; the papers were all sent to my atty. Chas. C. Tucker and he may recollect accurately.

By adopting this plan - which I am told is not an unusual one with the officials of the Freedman's Bureau - you will confer

The present bill overruns the former 0.57 occurs from some of the nails having been bought by the Reg at a small fraction less than they were charged to the different houses - I am satisfied with former bill
as it is more pleasant to give than to receive profit from funds that are designed for Benevolent purposes -

The 8 houses to which the bill applies are all ready to plaster inside and all but one have sent requisition for lime some of them a 3 weeks ago & I have not sent ~~the~~ it yet - The lath were much damaged they have made demand for more averaging 2500 to the house I insisted on their using all that were there before any more will be sent There will probably be

16000 lath wanting at 5¢ per thousand = 800 or 80.00

2000 Bushels lime 55-

110 or 110.00

Seaford will want Bricks 1600 at 12

24 or 24

Dover & Seaford men say General Gregory promised a lumber for seats & desks which will probably amt 200 00

New castle and Milton are just starting and will probably require many materials amounting to 35 each 17000

There are several applicants for houses that have not been forwarded - Hoping this will be satisfactory and the will pardon errors & informalities it is the best that I can do as I am only a mechanic Though anxious to do all I can for the long & deeply injured Blacks

I remain most truly thy friend in the cause

Careful review of the last Bill. It is somewhat less than the former one, & as it is made out more in accordance with the form of the Grant of

It does not, however, as you will perceive, differ materially in amount from the other. Hoping that it will be approved, I am, Sir, very truly & respectfully Yrs, J. G. Ferry

Apt Commr &c for Md & Del.

Dear Sir.

Enclosed I present you the following named bills for work done on the Easton Md. Colored School house and which I must beg you to pay, as the colored people are unable to do so.

Mr C. Turner & Co.	For amt paid Jesse Morris carpenter	}	250.00
	for building said house.
Mr C. Carmine.	For making blackboards benches &c		49.50
Anthony Spruce.	For plastering and brickwork		103.75
	Total		$ 403.25

this debt is all that is due on the house and as you are away I am individually responsible for its payment (as I have been for all the work and materials in the house) therefore the people cannot obtain a clear title for the property until it is paid.

I know that you have already paid on this house for materials a thousand dollars, therefore any demand for further help may at first glance appear heavy; but you must consider that this house has been built to accommodate 160 children and that now the school numbers 130 with every prospect of reaching 160. This is the largest school in the Counties, is situated in one of the largest slaveholding Counties (Talbot) which has a powerful influence on the others. It is also in one of the largest towns of the State and the one containing the largest colored population, therefore the necessity for large school accommodations, consequently large payments therefor.

In building this house we have had in view the making of it a High School for children from other schools in the County ^{who are} desirous of becoming teachers of their race and I am confident that the school will soon compare favorably with a similar institution for whites located in the town.

The Colored people are mostly just out of slavery, with nothing saved to start with in life as freemen and have large families to care for, notwithstanding this they have paid on the house $400 - which, ^{is heavy} considering their impoverished condition, which was made much worse by the extreme severity of the past winter, when the majority were unable to do any work. Considering ~~all~~ ^{all} this, I think they have done much and are yet willing to do, but we cannot expect much this winter.

Besides building the school house, they have undertaken to build a small house for their teachers, for whom they are unable to obtain board, as the houses the people are living in are generally mere hovels and it was impossible to obtain rooms for them. This will bring them still further in debt, for the payment of which I am also responsible; this is a great burden on the people and on me and would not have been incurred had we not have had the promise of aid ~~large~~ from the white people of the town and bright hopes of large collections by the teachers in the North this summer, neither of which have been realized. I therefore cannot see any prospect of the colored people paying their debt, which amounts to nearly $4000 - under two or three years unless ~~we~~ ^{we} get aid from the Bureau.

I have a great deal of sympathy for this people, as well as pride in advancing the interests of the good cause in my native town and have labored hard against much opposition to establish this school and shall do all in my power to get the school relieved of debt, as well as to have this school ^{made} one of the best in the country. Yet I am not able to bear for them so heavy a burden as this debt will be.

The colored people besides raising money for the building, pay the board of two teachers, fuel and lights for school house, taxes, insurance &c amounting to more than $600 per annum and you must remember too, that this is done out of wages of 8¢ to 15¢ per month.

Now under all these circumstances I feel no hesitancy in asking and expecting your help. I am confident you would grant it, without any hesitancy if you would see the people in their homes & school.

Hoping I may have an early and favorable reply.

I am
